FOREWORD

Keys of the past have always unlocked the doors for today.

A subtle blending of past and present pervades the atmosphere of San Diego and its surroundings. The rich, colorful days of early Spanish California reflect in our heritage and play an essential part in the area's development.

Musical Spanish names, holding the flavor of an earlier era, linger on our tongues in daily converse.

Our quest for knowledge stems in part from the impetus provided by the good Franciscan fathers.

The Padre Dam, still in existence, marked the beginning of water control and irrigation, so necessary in a region of whimsical, undependable rainfall.

For many decades the architecture of San Diego mirrored the adobe and tile structures of the dons.

Our traditional hospitality, our cultural pursuits, and even our tastes in food retain the distinctive aura of the gracious days of the ranchos.

The daring Spanish explorers who conquered the desert routes to San Diego provided a vital key to its development, as did those who first ventured into the harbor.

With the example of the past before us, it would follow that our interest in growth and expansion will unlock the doors of the future.

WHEN NATURE BLESSES the earth with enough rain, the foothills spread a golden carpet in thanksgiving.

Water—a precious key to unlock latent life in an arid land— magically transforms the soil into a fertile source of sustenance for an ever-expanding population.

FROM BUSY HIGH-speed highways travelers can glimpse the serenity of peaceful rural existence.

Nestled in hidden valleys of rare beauty are ranchos whose romantic names serve as a nostalgic reminder of the more leisurely days of the early Californians.

FROM HIGH ATOP a mesa, in the heart of a modern, prideful community, Clairemont High looks westward to the ocean and eastward to the ancient hills.

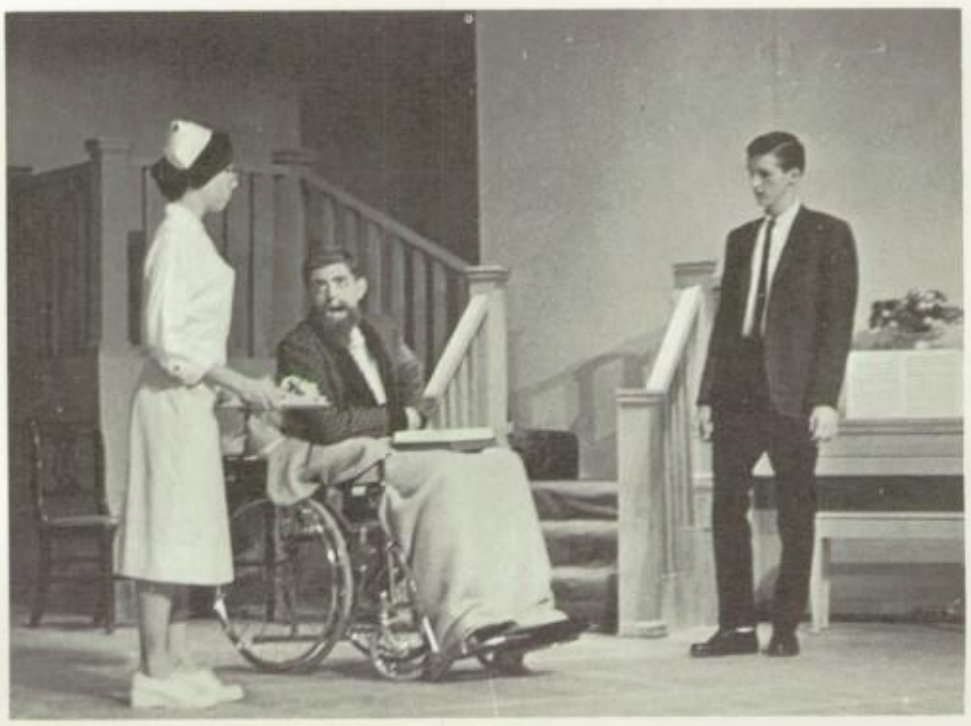
"THE MAN WHO CAME

"I MAY VOMIT!"

The class of 1964 presented for its senior play, "The Man Who Came To Dinner." For three nights the production moved the audiences to hilarity and was considered the best play ever given at Clairemont.

There were long hours and hard rehearsals, but the result was one well worth waiting for.



"... and when she had been dead three days, she looked better than you do now!"

CLAIREMONT'S INSTRUMENTAL

maintained high standards

Developing musical talents and an appreciation of fine arts is the main goal of Clairemont's Music Department. Headed by Charles Freebern, groups include band, orchestra, dance band, pep band, choir, and chorus.

Yearly activities for the music department have included half-time entertainment at football games, a Christmas program, and music festivals.

At this year's music festival, the Clairemont band earned three superior ratings.

HOMECOMING 1963

THE CLASS OF 1964 entered the winning Homecoming Float, "Wipe-out."

AFTER BEING CROWNED Queen, Nancy Hansen is congratulated by Karen Welch, one of the senior attendants.

THE HOMECOMING COURT

"Chieftains on the Warpath"

Returning alumni took part in Clairemont's '63 Homecoming festivities: floats, football, and a royal court.

Last year's queen, Linda Busch, crowned Nancy Hansen, the new queen. Attendants were seniors Karen Welch and Linda Welch; juniors, Linda Shrock and Vance Young; and sophomores Kathy Hass and Chris McSwain.

VARSITY FOOTBALL had

Coach Don Henson

Although not a banner year in comparison to last year's League-winning season, the CHS football team did provide many sparkling performances as in the upset victory over Hoover and the "grudge" defeat of Point Loma. Compiling an over-all record of four wins and four losses, the Chiefs finished in fourth place in the Western League. Two players, Steve Brown and Bruce Radabaugh, earned the distinction of being named to the all-league team.

VARSITY BASKETBALL had its high—and low—points

this year

Coach Dick Eiler

With only two lettermen returning from last year the varsity basketball team was dependent upon the JV squad for its nucleus this season. Troubled by lack of experience, unusually tough competition, and a few bad breaks, the Chiefs struggled through 23 games, winning 6 and losing 17. The only league wins came against Point Loma twice, thus easing the pain of finishing in the Western League cellar.

The scoring of Ken Henderson, with two 32-point games, and steady play by Bill Mason, Ted Heckman, and Randy Allen helped salvage an otherwise disappointing season.

The presence of ten seniors and only one underclassman on the team prevented this year from being one of "rebuilding." However, despite this graduation toll, basketball should again take a turn for the better with several fine JV players joining the varsity next year.

CHS THANKS THE COMMUNITY

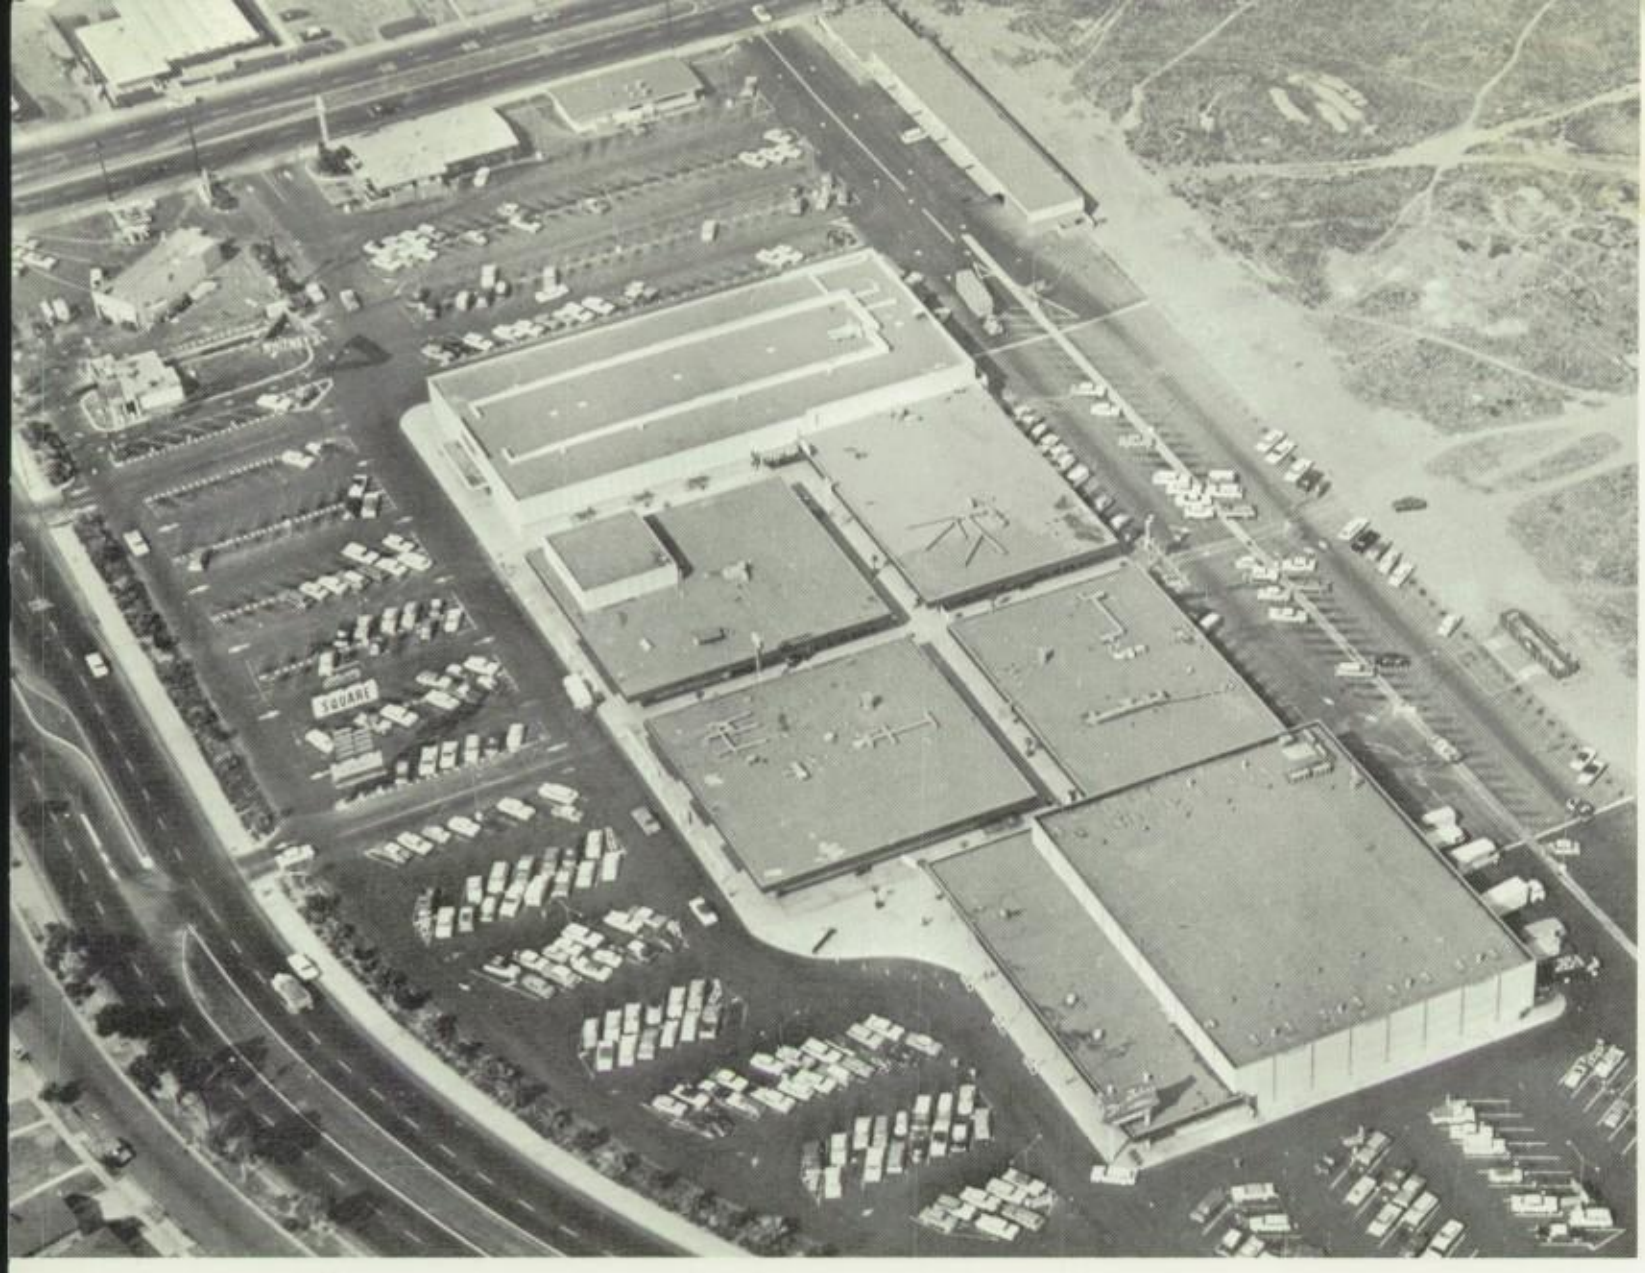
In its community of the present lies the key to an area's future. The farsighted merchants and investors who have made our community possible will also determine tomorrow's continued growth.

Clairemont's merchants have generously supported school activities, and have become somewhat used to seeing us with hand outstretched, seeking assistance. Now is our chance to extend a hand again, this time to express our gratitude and appreciation for all they have done for our community. This is our way of giving them something in return for their many favors.

Here is our gift to you. On the following pages we have pictured a group of Clairemont students embarking on a lighthearted tour of shopping and window wishing around the area's centers to show the variety of merchandise and services you have to offer.

Thank you for the faith you have demonstrated in the development of our community.

Clairemont Quad



Clairemont Square

YOU MEAN I get compound interest?

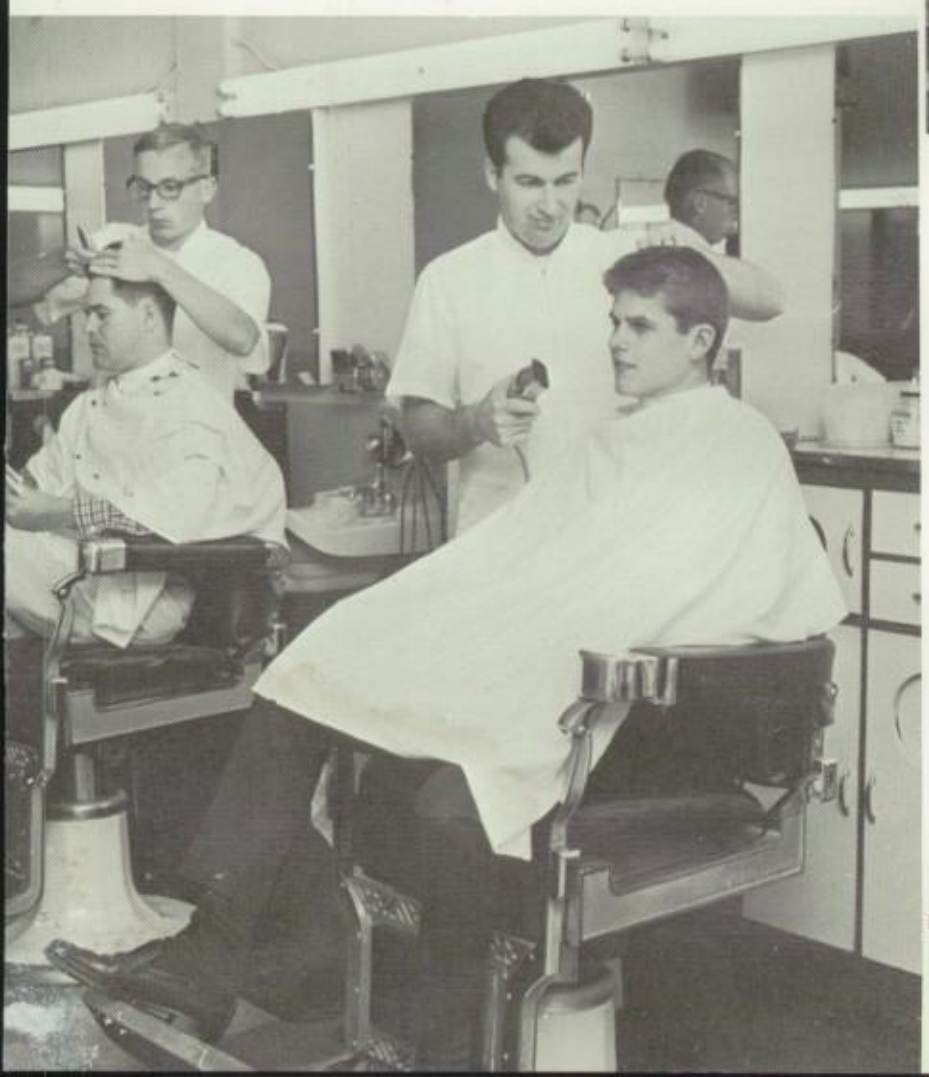
SURE, IT'S GREAT, but who's got any dough?

IT'S BEAUTIFUL. NOW my only problem is sneaking it into the house.

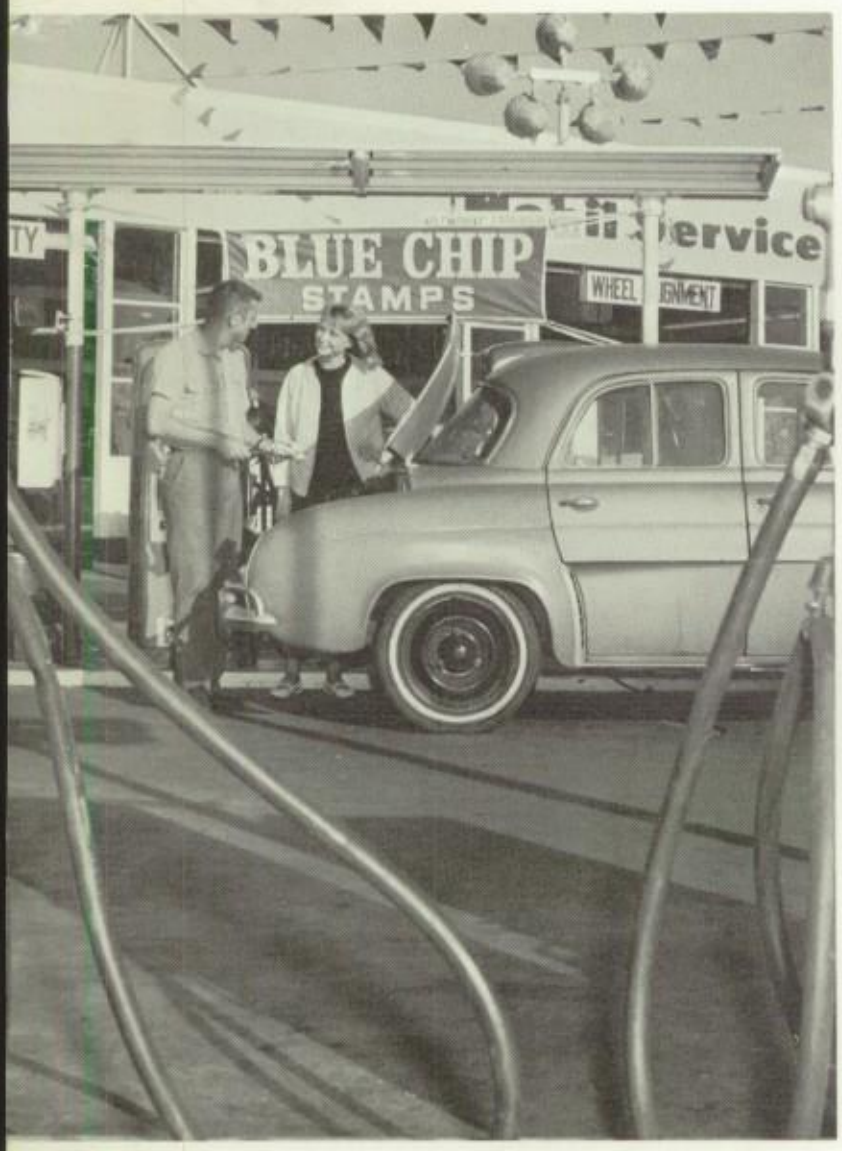
HEY . . . DO YOU see what I see?

WONDERFUL! IT'S IN my size tool

OH THOSE CALORIES!



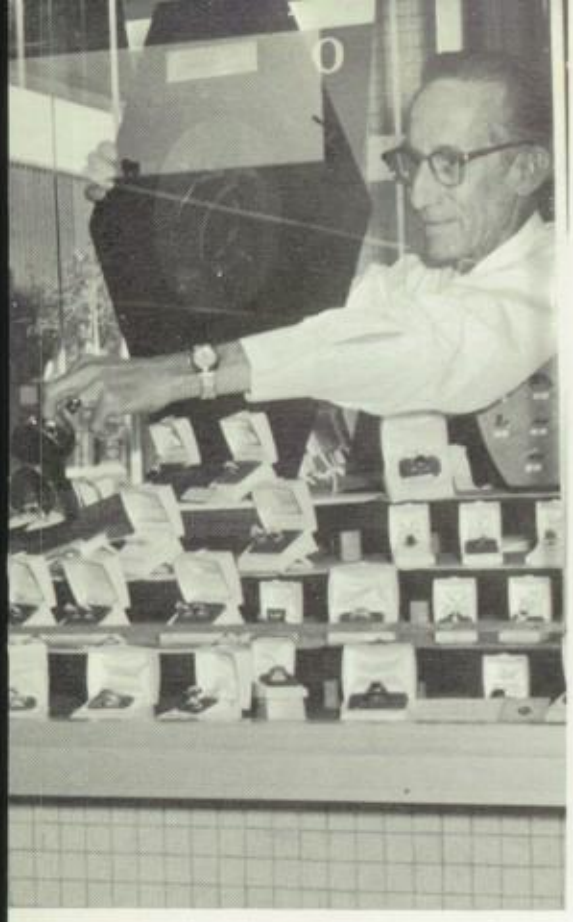
DECISIONS, DECISIONS, DECISIONS. Yul Brynner or Ringo style?



SO THAT'S WHERE it is!

WELL, I CAN dream

IT'S LIGHT WEIGHT and in the newest spring color.



can't I?

IF IT'LL KEEP my hair in place after jumping hurdles, it'll be a lifesaver.

SAY, I'LL ASK for that for my birthday.

I JUST WASHED my hair; now you do something with it.

WE'LL BE BRANDED traitors, but oh that Chinese food is good!

ALL WE WANT is something that's cheap, looks expensive, matches the color of the living room, isn't like anything she has already, and can be easily wrapped. That's all.

DUTCH? YOU MUST be kidding!

THERE WENT THE monthly budget, but it'll be worth it.

WHAT HAVE YOU got up your sleeve?
